Cranks Getting Busy With Crazy Threats of Further Anarchy

Anonymous Warning By Postcard of Plot to Demolish
New York Customs House Received By Collector of Internal Revenue; Inquiry Opens.

New York, Sept. 20.—A postcard warning that an attempt would be made to blow up the Customs House, after the Wall Street explosion last Thursday, was received in the mail today by William B. Edwards, collector of internal revenue for this district.

This postcard, signed "A Citizen," was turned over to the custodian of the building by Mr. Edwards, who also notified Postmaster Thomas G. Patten. The Department of Justice, too, was informed also of receipt of the postcard.

The warning said that the Customs House, already under heavy guard, would be blown up at 2 p.m. Mr. Edwards said that a preliminary investigation had shown no evidence of a plot and he was inclined to regard the warning as a hoax.

A few minutes before the warning postcard had been received by "Big Bill" Edwards, a former Princeton football star, Edwin P. Fischer, ex-tennis player, who sent warnings of the first explosion, had declared at police headquarters on his arrival here from Canada that "more will happen in the future."

"Unless powers had communicated that to me," he said.

Edwin P. Fischer, the former metropolitan tennis star, who was detained at Hamilton, Ont., in connection with his postcard warnings of the Wall Street explosion, arrived here in the custody of New York and Hamilton detectives. He was taken to police headquarters at once.

Chaufeur identified.
A body of the one victim of the Wall Street explosion which had remained unidentified was recognized at the morgue today by Mrs. Olive Kehrer, of Brooklyn, as her son, Elmer Wallace Kehrer, 21 year old, chauffeur.

Kehrer had been out of work and looking for employment. Mrs. Kehrer said, adding that the youth had had his home in her at 422 South Fourth Street.

Considerable importance has been attached to the fact that Kehrer had remained unidentified so long, official opinion differing over the theory that this lack of identification might signify fear to recognize him by persons of questionable character.

Grand Jury Convened.
New York, Sept. 20.—The September Grand Jury today was convened to investigate the explosion that shook the financial district last Thursday and exacted a toll of 34 lives and injury to nearly 200 others. Subsequent to the appearance of scores of eyewitnesses of the blast.

Included among those to be examined was Edwin P. Fischer, arrested in Hamilton, Ont., after he had testified to having sent warnings of the disaster to a number of friends here, but authorities attach little significance to his story because of his recognized eccentricity. Fischer was attached to the further examination of Alexander Brailovsky, a Russian journalist, the only man in New York who has been named in the blast found in the vicinity of the disaster in conversation with companions shortly after the explosion occurred. He is held without bail as an undesirable alien.

Efforts to identify the owner of the horse which drew the wagon supposed to have carried the infernal machine, were continued. Although John Haggerty, the farmer, who identified the shoes of the dead horse as those he had attached two weeks ago, faint hope was expressed of being able to trace the owner of the animal, since Haggerty could recall no unmistakable identifying feature of the owner. He identified the shoes simply because they bore a certain mark common to all his handwork and not distinguished by his particular job.

Federal agents today were investigating a report that the fire department had learned, by checking up all stores of explosives lawfully held in the city, that there was a distinct shortage in one of the explosive magazines. Fire department officials gave no hint as to the location of the reported shortage, but claimed this might have an important bearing on the discovery of the supposed plotters of the disaster.

Montreal Guarded.
Montreal, Sept. 20.—As the result of the bomb explosion in New York last Thursday, the Montreal financial district is being carefully guarded. It is learned that Colonel Gaudet, Director of Public Safety, on receipt of the news from New York at once took instant measures for safeguarding not only the local Stock Exchange but also the whole financial district.

TORONTO BY-ELECTION.

CONTEST TO-DAY IN COLCHESTER COUNTY

By-Election in Nova Scotia Stubbornly Fought By Both Sides

Truro, N. S., Sept. 20.—With the voting to-day will close the very exciting by-election contest in Colchester County where Hon. F. B. McCurdy, Minister of Public Works in the Federal Cabinet is seeking reelection, opposed by Captain Hugh Dickson, M. C., representing the United Farmers allied with Labor.

Both sides claim to be certain of victory. The campaign in the interim did not mean free trade, but the Federal Cabinet is seeking reelection, opposed by Captain Hugh Dickson, M. C., representing the United Farmers allied with Labor.

W. A. Burnaby, president of the United Farmers of Ontario, at the meeting on Saturday night, made a reply to the speech delivered by Truro on Friday night by George Foster.

Mr. Burnaby expounded the farmer's platform. He said that, although the platform did not mean free trade, but that it did mean that any industry, no matter what its age, whether one year or forty years old, asking for protection, should explain to an open committee of parliament where and why they need protection and that all the industries obtaining protection annually should submit to public accounting once a year.

Sir Hamar Greenwood on Hunger Strike Policy

Belfast, Sept. 20.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, has informed the magistrates of County Louth that he can hold out no hope that the British Government will reverse its decision in the case of Lord Mayor Macswiney, on hunger strike in Brixton jail.

The magistrates recently sent a communication to Sir Hamar demanding full self-government for Ireland, with powers not less comprehensive than those enjoyed by any Dominion, and calling for the immediate release of Macswiney. The Chief Secretary's reply to them says:

"I can hold out no hope of reversal of the decision of the Government in the case of the Lord Mayor of Cork. I can assure you the Government is desirous of granting you the fullest measure of self-government to the Irish people and would welcome an expression of moderate opinions directed to the unfortunate state of affairs."

Macswiney's Condition.
London, Sept. 20.—Terence Macswiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, passed a somewhat better night in Brixton jail, having two hours sleep, which, says a bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League at noon yesterday, the thirty-eighth day of his Lord Mayor's hunger strike.

Manufacturers' Outline Policy for Protection at Vancouver To-day

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—(Canadian Press)—At the initial sitting of the Federal Tariff Commission on the coast here this forenoon, the British Columbia division of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association outlined their reasons for urging a policy of "adequate protection." The organization's brief, presented by J. B. Thomson, provincial chairman, further declared that a preferential tariff within the British Empire should be arranged.

The United States, with thirteen times Canada's population, said Mr. Thomson, is the main competitor with the home manufacturer for the Canadian market. Their longer established industries enjoy many advantages, such as proximity to important markets and firmly established transportation systems, that place the majority of industries of Canada in the position where without protection they cannot hope to survive, he continued.

Referring to Oriental competition, Mr. Thomson stated that even with protection afforded certain industries heavy importations of manufactures from those countries have come in, and with the low labor cost in the Orient, under a policy of free trade it would be utterly impossible for Canada to compete.

Asked by Henry Drayton, chairman of the board, how he desired protection as applied to the shipbuilding industry, Mr. Thomson said there was a drawback, namely, that the shipbuilding industry was dependent on shipbuilding which requires protection in order to survive.

Nicol Thompson, former Provincial Fuel Controller, urged that advance notice should be given at the port of entry of any changes in tariff. In the interest of the mining industry he thought that tool steel should be admitted duty-free.

Mr. Thomson asked the Commission to exert its influence for the establishment of an iron and steel industry on the Pacific Coast, preferably in British Columbia. Enumerating the places where there were large deposits of iron ore, he suggested that the Federal Government should help any company seeking to construct iron and steel plants.

Manufacturers' Brief.
J. B. Thomson, chairman of the British Columbia division of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, submitted the brief of this division to the Tariff Commissioners, at their sitting here today. In doing so, Mr. Thomson stated that as a part of the Association of Canadian Manufacturers, he was submitting his brief to the Commission at Winnipeg on September 14, and he said the members of the division endorse the policy of adequate protection, enunciated by Mr. McKinnon.

"All countries," declared Mr. Thomson, "which have progressed in industrial life and have become beneficiaries of a protective tariff. The war has taught that, as essential to the maintenance of an army and navy, is the fostering of the industrial and agricultural life of a country, so that should it, at any time be forced, through the acts of war, to abandon its industrial life, it can, from the products of its own resources, be able to produce all required for the comfort and welfare of its people."

Government Income.
"Protection," furnishes through the collection of customs duties, a very large proportion of the income of the Federal Government. It has been long recognized by the majority of the foremost nations of the world that this form of collection of revenue is one of the most just and equitable forms ever devised, because it collects from the people according to the expenditures they may make, so that if one is extravagant, he pays a greater proportion than the man who is economical and saves, from a view to becoming a greater asset to the country by using his savings for the development of industry and the consequent general betterment of all. To devise any method of replacing the revenue secured through customs duties would be a very difficult undertaking."

DEMAND SESSION OF ITALIAN PARLIAMENT

Socialist Deputies Press Premier to Re-open House to Discuss Status of Workmen

Agreement Reached on Every Point Except Dismissals, Says Rome Dispatch

Rome, Sept. 20.—Premier Giolitti yesterday expressed the hope of being able to reopen the Chamber of Deputies during the first fortnight of November, instead of at the end of that month, as has been customary. A number of Socialist deputies yesterday visited the Premier and insisted on an immediate re-opening of Parliament in order to bring up a discussion of their bill on the new status of workmen and the relations of the men and masters inside manufactures. The Premier replied that discussion of these subjects would take place on a bill which the Government would present to Parliament after it has received a report from the Commission of employers and workmen, who are now negotiating.

Employers Will Submit.
Rome, Sept. 20.—Delegates of the Italian employers informed Premier Giolitti yesterday they were unable to accept his formula for reaching a settlement of their controversy with their workmen but would submit to it. The Premier answered he would assume full responsibility for imposing his plan, and later issued a decree making formal announcement of his action.

Efforts were made earlier in the day to reconcile opposing points of view regarding the Premier's plan.

MILLERAND AGREES TO BE CANDIDATE FOR FRENCH PRESIDENCY

Paris, Sept. 20.—(Associated Press)—Premier Alexandre Millerand agreed today to be a candidate for the Presidency of the Republic to succeed President Deschanel, who has tendered his resignation.

Asked by the French press, Mr. Millerand said he was not a candidate for the Presidency of the Republic to succeed President Deschanel, who has tendered his resignation.

London, Sept. 20.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Rome says the negotiations between the employers and the metal workers in Milan concluded Saturday evening and that an agreement was reached on every point except concerning the question of the dismissal of workmen who have been guilty of crimes inside the factories during the time the workers have occupied them. The workers, according to the dispatch, will evacuate the factories.

The metal workers have accepted a wage advance of four lire daily, this amount to be reduced by 20 per cent. in the cases of workmen from 18 to 20 years of age, and by 40 per cent. in the cases of women and children. The employers have also agreed to grant a week's vacation annually to workmen.

The men ask that this advance date from July 1, and that the employers should hold the increase, should be effective from resumption of work.

Anarchists Bitter.
Milan, Sept. 20.—The anarchists and syndicalists are waging a bitter campaign against the Federation of Labor and the Socialist leaders who have consented to come to terms with the employers and the Government in settling the strike of metal workers.

COST OF LIVING SOARS IN ENGLAND

London, Sept. 20.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The cost of living still goes up. For September it was 151 per cent. over July, 1914. The food increase alone was 147 per cent. Food Controller McCurdy is gloomy on the outlook, prophesying at Christmas the working class household budget will show a nine-shillings and six-pence rise on last year.

Owing to the poor English crop and the removal of all restrictions on the purchase and sale of exportable commodities, there will be a strong incentive to dispose of the exportable Canadian crop within that period.

HOPEFUL OUTLOOK FOR MANUFACTURING PLANT

Columbia syndicate and a group of British capitalists to an extent which precluded further publicity to the ultimate object at the present time. The Commission went so far as to say, however, that never in the history of this Province has the prospect for development of the manufacturing stage of this vital industry been so bright as at the present time.

Where They Went.
Major Martyn and James McVety, the latter a member of the Advisory Council of the Department of Industries, pursued their inquiries in Chicago in connection with mechanical equipment, while Mr. Thomson, also a member of the Council, probed the field on the Californian coast from San Francisco south.

The three met at the Golden Gate and discussed their several experiences and came to an arrangement for a joint report to the Government. What that report portends for the future of the Province will not be known until the Cabinet has had an opportunity of digesting its contents.

PULP SUPPLY IS BIGGEST PROBLEM COUNTRY FACES

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—R. A. Pringle, K.C., former Paper Controller for Canada, was among the arrivals from the East yesterday.

Mr. Pringle, when interviewed, said the matter of an adequate supply of pulp and paper was going to be one of the biggest problems in a few years that the country would have to face. This was because such a large foreign demand existed and he was sure to increase in the next few years, while there did not seem to be any material increase in supply in number of mills.

Fair Opens With Wonderful Display of Varied Products

Huge Collection of Livestock, Agricultural Products and Manufactured Articles Feature of Exhibition; Big Dance and Concert at Home Products Fair

With a truly wonderful collection of livestock, agricultural products and manufactured articles, the B. C. Agricultural Association's annual Fall Fair—the first for seven years—opened at the Willows Fair Grounds this morning. While to-day will be devoted, for the most part, to preparations for the week's events, practically all preliminary arrangements were completed at an early hour and Fair officials, much encouraged by the favorable change in the weather at noon, looked forward to the most successful exhibition in the history of the city.

While the Fair actually commenced to-day, the official opening will take place to-morrow, when Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Federal Minister of Agriculture, will be present with Mayor Porter, president of the B. C. Agricultural Association. The Fair got away to a good start to-day, however, large numbers of people attending during the afternoon.

The programme feature will take place to-night, when a concert and dance are to be held in the big Home Products Building. To-morrow the horse races will start at two o'clock, and at half-past three troopers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will give what is expected to be a thrilling display of fancy riding.

Fine Cattle Exhibit.
The Fair this year undoubtedly has brought together one of the finest displays of live stock ever seen on Vancouver Island. Particularly fine is the large exhibition of cattle which has taken up practically all available space in the huge new cattle stable constructed this year. The cattle which are on exhibition here are from some of the most famous herds on the whole continent, and have been brought from places a long distance from Victoria. Indeed, the exhibition includes animals from points as far as Ontario and Oregon. In the big cattle building and in other quarters the animals are receiving the very best of care and attention from the management of the Fair.

There is a fine display of Jersey cattle, some of which came from Ontario. Eighty-five animals, representing twelve separate entries are on view. The cattle class includes also thirty head of Shorthorn cattle, representing three entries; two herds of Aberdeen Angus, totalling twenty head; the highest of Holstein aggregating 110 head; two herds of Ayrshires totalling fifty-one head, and seventy head of Guernseys representing six entries.

Many Sheep Exhibited.
The sheep pens near the big cattle stable are filled almost to capacity by the numerous entries. Fifteen separate entries from various points in Western Canada and the United States, bring the total number of sheep on exhibition up to 400.

The spring exhibit, too, is very numerous, there being 15 entries, totalling 200 head.

Horses Attract Attention.
The horse classes perhaps are attracting most attention, as some beautiful animals are entered from points all over the island. There is a big showing of light horses from the Prairies—some 45 head made up of six entries. In the heavy horse class there are three entries, totalling 30 head. In addition to these animals 30 horses belonging to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police are on show.

The poultry exhibits are so numerous that Fair officials at noon to-day were unable to give out any figures concerning them. All the speaking buildings, however, are taxed to capacity by the noisy birds. There is a tremendous display of pigeons, also, while the rabbit building, too, is filled with animals to be exhibited in these classes were brought to the Willows in large numbers during the morning and it was apparent that a big percentage of poultry fanciers and poultry ranchers on the island were represented in these classes.

Fine Agricultural Exhibits.
Elaborate preparations were proceeding this morning in the big building which will be devoted to the exhibition of agricultural products. A big list of entries in most events is in the hands of Park Superintendent Purdy, who is managing this feature of the Fair. The number of entries in the various agricultural events is as follows:

MAYOR PORTER CALLS HALF HOLIDAY FOR FAIR ON WEDNESDAY

Mayor Porter, President of the B. C. Agricultural Association, announced this morning that he would ask the citizens to close shops Wednesday afternoon and attend the Association's Fall Fair at the Willows. It is hoped, the Mayor stated to-day, that all business houses will be closed during the afternoon.

RUMOR OF COMMUNIST MOVE IN SCOTLAND

Sensational Coup Reported Planned at Blantyre Near Glasgow

London, Sept. 20.—Extraordinary rumors are in circulation throughout Lanarkshire to the effect that the leaders of the Scottish Communist movement have planned a sensational coup to be sprung at Blantyre, eight miles southeast of Glasgow, says a dispatch to The Westminster Gazette from Hamilton, Scotland.

"It is asserted that the cashiers and officials have been bluntly told that seizure of the coal pits is imminent and that it is proposed to establish a soviet system of mining control," the dispatch adds. "The authorities are not skeptical of the rumors for they are not unkind of the underground at work."

A dispatch almost similar in tone has been received by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

MACSWINEY STARTS THIRTY-NINTH DAY OF HUNGER STRIKE

London, Sept. 20.—Terence Macswiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, began the thirty-ninth day of his hunger strike by which he is endeavoring to avoid serving a prison term to which he was sentenced for sedition, with his condition "virtually unchanged," according to the report which the physician at Brixton made to the Home Office this morning. The bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League declared Macswiney "had a bad night and was very weak this morning."

Portage la Prairie, Sept. 20.—Fred Buran, employed on a threshing gang working at the farm of Percy Little, 15 miles north of High River, was instantly killed Saturday when he was pulled into the flywheel of a gasoline engine.

Hopeful Outlook for Manufacturing Plant

"Our trip of investigation and inquiry was a great deal more satisfactory than had anticipated; we found out all that was essential for the launching of an iron and steel enterprise in this Province, both as related to the sort of equipment that will be required and the markets in which it will be possible to dispose of our product."

In this optimistic vein Major D. E. Martyn, British Columbia's industrial commissioner, gave the bare outline of the mission conducted by himself, James H. McVety, and Nicol Thompson, for the Department of Industries as the preliminary to an announcement of far-reaching importance to this Province.

Could Not Divulge.
When pressed by The Times representative for more definite details in connection with the project to which reference was made in these columns a short time ago, Major Martyn stated positively that the various series of negotiations were interlocked with the plans of a British

HOUSING PROBLEM ACUTE IN DETROIT

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 20. — The Detroit Board of Commerce will stand back of the Detroit Housing Corporation's proposal to float a bond issue of $600,000 for building additional homes for workers in the city. This was made clear when 75 per cent. of the Board's membership endorsed the idea. Virtual pledges on the part of the entire membership of the Board were made to subscribe most of the fund.

The commercial organization has just completed a survey tending to show that the growth of Detroit both in population and industry, being retarded by the house shortage. It was revealed that workers are paying from $70 to $100 per month for places in which to live and that many workmen either are leaving Detroit for other cities or are threatening to do so.

The bonds that the members of the Board are asked to buy are in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000, maturing semi-annually. They are to be secured by mortgages.

A critical situation in business and financial circles was predicted by local grainmen unless the car situation improved. It will take twenty-eight months, at the present rate, for the railroads to move wheat now in Kansas, according to Judge Clyde Reed, of the Kansas Court of Indus-

DIVORCE GROWS IN ENGLAND AND WALES

London, Sept. 20.—The number of divorces in England and Wales during 1918 was alarming. No fewer than 2,688 matrimonial petitions were filed in that year, by far the largest total on record. Of the petitions for dissolution of marriage 1,597 were filed by husbands and 518 by wives, increases of 73 and 36 per cent, respectively, over the figures for 1917. The steady increase in five years is shown in this table.

BREAD EXPENSIVE NOW IN ENGLAND

Smallest Wheat Crop Harvested Since Early Days of War

London, Sept. 20.—With bread selling at 25 cents a loaf and soon to be raised to 30 and later perhaps to 35 cents, England is harvesting this season the smallest wheat crop since the early days of the war. Production of barley, on the other hand, will show a material increase over that of the last few years.

The reasons for this state of affairs, according to Professor James Long, a well-known agricultural expert are Government control and beer. The price of wheat and oats is regulated, but no restrictions have been placed on that of barley. As the market price of barley is exceptionally high, farmers planted that grain instead of wheat and oats.

Professor Long shows that since 1915 wheat has been reduced by 472,000 acres, or more than one-third of the present area, while oats, also an important bread stuff, has fallen off by 512,000 acres. "On the basis of wheat," he says, "this means a loss of bread grain equal to some 35,000,000 bushels, or sufficient to feed 7,500,000 persons. It is a curious commentary on the fact that the barley crop has considerably increased, and that in consequence beer has so far occupied the position of bread."

The country has fewer cattle than in any year since 1903 and 5,330,000 less sheep than the average of the ten years from 1904 to 1913. The decrease in cattle since last year is more than 500,000 head.

HIGHER TAXATION OR BANKRUPTCY

Only Alternative Possibilities German Minister Informs Economic Conference

Cologne, Sept. 20.—Higher taxation or state bankruptcy are the only alternative possibilities for Germany, Dr. Koch, German Minister of Home Affairs, told leading public men in a conference on the economic and political situation of Rhenish Prussia. Dr. Koch declared he could not see the faintest possibility of any reduction of the tax schedules which had already been drawn up and approved.

Dr. Koch was overwhelmed with complaints about the shortage of dwellings and the paralyzing effect of the present export and import regulations.

SEISMIC DISTURBANCE IN SOUTH AMERICA WORST SINCE 1906

Santiago, Sept. 20.—The seismic disturbance which visited central Chile and a part of western Argentina in the latter part of last month—the most violent since the 1906 earthquake when Valparaiso was partly destroyed with great loss of life—was a happy event, from a geological point of view, according to Count Montessus de Balloire, director of the Chilean Seismological observatory, located near here. Explaining this, he says:

"For the last eighteen months there has been complete seismic tranquillity and we know that an undisturbed condition prepares disaster in countries subject to such phenomena. The frequent rumblings correspond to what may be called 'small coin' earthquakes. When no quakes are produced for a long period the effort is accumulated until it breaks out violently as the forces succeed in crushing the elastic resistance of the terrestrial strata."

The Count says if the "quiet condition" had continued much longer—one or two years—the danger would have been far greater, but now "according to all probabilities, we will return to a state of normal seismic activity instead of a menacing calm." Faint shocks are felt here frequently. There was no loss of life, and the material damage in Santiago and Valparaiso was confined largely to cracked walls and shakily destruction of glassware in some of the stores and cracking of a glass dome on the palace of fine arts in Santiago.

TIRED OF RAIDS HANDS HOUSE KEY TO AUTHORITIES

Belfast, Ireland, Sept. 20.—The home of an old man named Walsh, of Dungarvan, Waterford, whose son is evading capture by the authorities has been raided at night so many times by the military and police that he has sent them the key of the door in order to save himself the trouble in future of getting up to let them in.

WOMAN ATTEMPTED TO CROSS CHANNEL BY WATER CYCLE

London, Sept. 20.—An attempt to cross the English Channel on a so-called "water cycle" has just been made by Miss Zetta Hills, a young Englishwoman. She started from Calais for Folkestone, about thirty miles distant. The currents prevented a direct course being followed, and at first Miss Hills was taken down channel along the French coast until a few miles from Boulogne. Then the tide turned and she was swept up channel until east of the Goodwin Lightship. Once more the tide changed and the cycle made a westerly course.

After covering about forty-eight miles in twelve hours, the machine broke down, owing, it is supposed to the backwash of a passing steamer, and Miss Hills was taken off by a rowing boat, only three and one-half miles from the English coast. Her food and drink were milk, fruit and boiled ham. She intends to try the trip again.

DELAYED PASSENGERS VENTED DISPLEASURE

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 20.—A train on the Southern Railway, which usually makes the run from Talleres in eighteen minutes but was delayed recently for an hour and a half, finally arrived at the Buenos Ayres terminal with two cars missing and the furnishings of the others completely wrecked and their windows broken. The damage expressed the displeasure of the passengers over the delay. The coaches missing had been set on fire.

After venting their anger in this fashion, most of the commuters got off and walked till they reached the trolley and taxicab zone. The railroad company, hearing of the trouble by telephone, called police reserves to the terminal to protect their offices against the fire of the remaining passengers and those of other delayed trains.

WOMEN CONDUCT BUSINESS.

The woman of the Loo Choo Islands conduct all business and have charge of everything pertaining to money except the spending of it. The straight backs and erect carriage of the Loo Choo women are due to the custom of carrying everything on their heads. No matter what the object, be it large or small, it is perched upon their thick, black hair, and off they walk in the most nonchalant manner, apparently paying not the slightest attention to keeping the object in place.

Clean -- Sparkling -- Inviting

A GOOD meal, daintily served, is most fully appreciated when eaten in a room that sparkles with sunshine and cleanliness.

Your dining-room will always have this much-to-be-desired appearance if you use O-Cedar Polish, as directed, on the wood-work, floors and furniture.

A few drops of O-Cedar on a wet cloth will form a soft lather which removes any dust and grime the furniture may have collected.

Over this clean surface simply rub a dry cloth. The "polish" that results from this treatment is bright and lustrous—it will cheerfully reflect the rays of sunlight that enter the room by day, and mirror the soft radiance of shaded lights after sunset.

O-Cedar Polish 25c. to 37.50 sizes. O-Cedar Polish long, 1s. 25c. extra. Both Polish and Mop at your Hardware or Grocery Shop.

HON. ROBT. BEAVEN.

Another sterling pioneer who played a conspicuous part in the public life of the Province has passed away in the person of the Hon. Robert Beaven, whose death occurred on Friday night. Premier, Cabinet Minister and Leader of the Opposition in the Legislature are some of the roles Mr. Beaven filled with marked ability and which made him an outstanding public figure for nearly a quarter of a century. He was one of the leaders in the movement for British Columbia's entrance into Confederation, and also in the insistent demand upon the Dominion to carry out the terms of Union, while he always will be remembered as the author of numerous wise laws. He enjoyed a national reputation as an authority on finance, and his wide knowledge of public affairs and sound judgment made him one of the ablest debaters that ever sat in the Legislature. He was an exceedingly able Mayor of Victoria and this city owes much to his sagacious administration. History will find a prominent place for him among the makers of British Columbia, and will pay special tribute to his spotless integrity, his great ability, and his unswerving devotion to principle.

WORK FOR THAT COMMITTEE.

If that select New York committee, which has been appointed by Mr. Oswald Garrison Villard to inquire into the Irish situation, with the British Government as one of the occupants of the witness stand, wishes to be of some practical use, it will leave Ireland and its problems alone and devote all its energy and talents to the alleviation of some very grave troubles at home. For example, the bomb outrage in Wall Street the other day, which killed nearly forty people and injured 300 others, occurred within a short distance of Mr. Villard's own office; a few minutes' ride in a motor car would take him to the spot. The explosion apparently was the work of an organization whose object is anarchy and whose weapon is indiscriminate assassination. In destructiveness it was worse than any single incident which has marked the turbulence in Ireland, and all the resources at the command of the Federal and State Governments have been mobilized for its investigation and the capture of its perpetrators. Here is an opportunity for Mr. Villard's committee to do something worth while, something which will not make it ridiculous. It might institute an inquiry of its own on a line somewhat different from that of the regular Government investigations. For instance, it could assist greatly by ascertaining if it were possible for the deed to have been committed by some unbalanced individual whose mind had been influenced towards violence by the shrieking sensationalism of the press controlled by William R. Hearst, one of the members of the committee; the late President Roosevelt, it will be recalled, always claimed that the assassin of President McKinley had been inspired to commit his crime by the vulgar diatribes against the President which filled the columns of the Hearst papers. Indeed, there are a good many angles to the New York tragedy which need to be looked at. Is it too much to expect from Mr. Villard an announcement that owing to the many serious problems awaiting solution at home, the committee on Ireland has decided to leave the Irish question to those whose business it is to deal with it?

DOMINION OR PROVINCE?

Whether the Province or the Dominion should be held responsible for the prevention of any further encroachment upon the lands of Nicomeen Island by the Fraser River is a question of which the two Governments will find it necessary to dispose at as early a date as possible. The farmers interested met on Friday last and passed a resolution, calling upon the Provincial Dyking Commissioners to construct a new dyke of sufficient strength and dimensions to protect the Island against a recurrence of such high floods as those which caused considerable havoc last July. The Province contends that the diversion of the stream above the Island by the Dominion two years ago was partly responsible for the floods of last year, compensation for which the residents of the Island are now demanding. It would appear to be necessary, therefore, for the Provincial and Dominion authorities to come to some arrangement. Jurisdiction, absolute and final, may be a debatable point; nevertheless it must be remembered that the Fraser River is navigable water, and as such, controllable by the Dominion Government under the provisions of the Navigable Streams Act, which permits of no interference by the use of any sort of obstruction without permission from the proper authority at Ottawa. Thus while the Province may not be entirely absolved in this particular case, a good deal of the onus obviously rests with the Dominion.

MR. BLACK'S SUCCESSOR.

It cannot be said of the Dominion Soldier Settlement Board that it is an organization whose affairs may be guided by any Tom, Dick or Harry who may chance to come along. Its work is of profound importance to this country as a whole and to the returned citizen in particular. On that account it is highly desirable that its administration should be placed in the hands of an official who has made a life study of practical agriculture. Professor Black has resigned from the chairmanship and Major John Barnett has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Black was an expert in the rural sciences and although some of his decisions were open to more than a little criticism his knowledge and experience of matters agricultural were always available to the officials of the Board. His successor, it is true, was born on a farm and for a little more than a year he has been in the service of the Settlement Board. But to all intents and purposes Major Barnett is a lawyer. His war record, of course, is excellent and it is just and proper that a grateful country should see to it that all those former members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force are re-established in civil life with prospects fully equal to those which they gave up on entering the army. Nevertheless, the highly technical nature of some of the decisions which the executive head of the Board is called upon to make from time to time demands practical training, and there is no evidence that Major Barnett possesses the qualifications. For instance, does he agree with his predecessor that there should be no clearing or irrigation projects carried out by the Board on a mass attack principle? And would he advise at this late date the continuance of a policy which seeks to attract the returned man to unimproved lands after the more keenly disposed to rural life have found it difficult in some instances to make ends meet on lands already advanced in their productive state? Surely there is highly important executive work in connection with this branch of the public service where the new chairman could utilize his special legal training for the benefit of his former comrades—and the country—to better advantage than in a role for which his qualifications scarcely equip him.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The indebtedness of the Allies to the United States approximates twelve billion dollars, shrieks a headline in one of the American newspapers. Quite right; but it is a good thing for the people across the international border that there were allies in the field—even if they were borrowing large sums of money—to limit German ambition until there was a pretty good guarantee that the battle line would not be pitched across the New England States.

Governor James Cox describes sugar profiteers as having reigned for "five long years of sordid, soulless, ugly and hateful." Every housewife will agree with these sentiments until this sweetening commodity reaches a price that will inspire a nicer compliment.

William Hohenzollern, formerly employed as emperor of all the Germans, has made another will which is declared to be his last testament; but we doubt very much whether he has bequeathed his British Admiral's uniform to the German nation as the symbol of a lost hope.

In yesterday's Sunday Times a paragraph appeared under the heading of "who is feeding Macswiney?" Thus grows the general belief that the Lord Mayor of Cork keeps the heart beating by the usual means but in small quantities.

WHY IS THE MARSEILLAISE THE FRENCH NATIONAL AIR?
(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

It was in 1792, that Rouget de Lisle, a young officer of engineers, was billeted at Strasbourg, where he became a frequent visitor at the home of the Baron de Dietrich, Mayor of the city. His host, who had formerly been rich, had become poor during the calamity of the Revolution, and one night, there was nothing to supper but some old ham and camp-bread. "Never mind," said De Dietrich, "food may be wanting, but enthusiasm is plentiful. We have one more bottle of Rhine wine in the cellar. Let us drink it to liberty and to the countrymen de Lisle must draw from the last drops one of those hymns of his that will carry his own ardent feelings to the soul of the people. But apparently all the young officer's efforts were in vain. Inspiration was lacking, and it was not until he had returned to his lodgings that he felt the first flush of real pride in the music which flowed from his fingers. Slowly at first and then more rapidly the melody came, fairly sweeping him off his feet with its intensity. In the morning, de Lisle called at the Dietrich home and it was there that he played for the first time his air, which destined to be known around the world. Only a few months later the Baron de Dietrich heard it for the last time, as he was being marched to the guillotine. Meanwhile, however, the new song spread throughout Strasbourg like wild-fire. Marseilles ruled that it should be sung at the opening and closing of all clubs, and it was this reason that it took the name of Marseillaise Hymn. Its own author heard it echo from the passes of the Jura, and at a price upon his head, he fled from his enemies. Before the year was out, the Marseillaise had swept through France, and despite numerous efforts of the royalists to forbid it remains the national air.

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

HOROSCOPE

Monday September 20, 1920.
(Copyright, 1920, By The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Uranus and Jupiter rule strongly for the day, and the day is astrologically. The Sun is adverse early in the morning. The planetary forces favor the use of the higher powers of the mind. They stimulate logic and careful argument, while at the same time they are supposed to encourage receptiveness. There is a most fortunate sign for public speakers who solicit the confidence of the people. They should push all their interests while this favorable condition of the stars is successful with the bumble than with the haughty. We Jupiter gives power to reason. Uranus quickens intuition under this direction of the stars and the day is most auspicious for the co-operating between men and women. A coalition between great organizations of the people engaged in industry and those devoted to the arts is prognosticated. An uncovering of long-hidden secrets seems to be suggested by the stars. There may be an increase of gossip, scandal and wrong thinking at this time. This should be a fairly favorable away under which to meet romance. Love affairs, especially those that concern men of letters or the learned professions are believed to culminate during this planetary government. Early to-day it will be wise not to seek positions or favors of any sort. Although many sinister signs appear at this time, the seeds declare that the world is growing rapidly better. An unusually dry Autumn is forecasted for the East and South. Stockmen in the West should prepare for a severe Winter in which a strange disease may affect cattle. The early part of the Autumn and Winter will bring a return to theatrical managers. New artists will be developed among American players, being more numerous than women. There is to-day the most promising ray for the negro race, which will enjoy many benefits, but riots may cause serious trouble in a Western city as well as in the South. Persons whose birthdate it is have the forecast of a most successful and profitable year. Women will be especially fortunate. Children born on this day have the augury of progress and prosperity, their desire for change must be curbed.

WHERE IT STARTED

BOWLING.
(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
The game was originally played on a green lawn, the object being to get the ball as near as possible to a smaller ball which was at the other end of the alley. Later the pins were added to increase the interest of the game. Bowling on an alley was a comparatively modern idea. The game itself is of considerable antiquity.

Shipbuilding Industry.

"It has already been pointed out that this Province is a vast storehouse of undeveloped resources," continued Mr. Thomson. "It is true that the major portion of manufactured output here is made from our raw products and rightly so, but we must not forget that it is essential to provide employment for others than those actively engaged in many of our larger industries. As an example, take the shipbuilding industry which is a large factor in the life of Vancouver and other cities in British Columbia to-day. The workmen or mechanics who are engaged in the building up of this industry are men with families; all men do not want to follow the same line of employment. There are also the female members of those families; some industries are absolutely necessary to furnish work for those members of the family who are not engaged in the shipbuilding industry; the industries necessary to furnish the varied employment referred to, can be established only, providing the protection necessary in each case is guaranteed."

American Competition.
"Referring to American competition Mr. Thomson said that United States manufacturers are the main competitors for the Canadian market. 'Their industries,' he declared, 'have sprung up during a century of stable and permanent protection; the certainty of the necessary protection has provided them with ample capital permitting of costly experimentation on the most advantageous methods of production; large scale production has caused specialization and corresponding reduction in overhead expenditure; firmly established transportation systems and close proximity to large markets has furnished an added advantage; favorable climatic conditions have rendered the initial cost of production less than they would be in a northern country; all of these advantages, coupled with the fact that the United States concerns are much longer established than are Canadian concerns, places the majority of the industries of Canada in the position where without protection they cannot hope to survive. 'The a preferential tariff should be arranged within the British Empire,' was voiced by Mr. Thomson. 'The war,' he said, 'has linked the whole Empire closer together. Canada's part in the co-operative action for the protection of the Empire has won her a place in the councils of the nations which otherwise she might not have obtained for many years, and one of the greatest safeguards against future wars would be that as far as possible within the Empire we would be able to obtain by interchange, all requirements of the British nation. With this end in view, where we can obtain reciprocity from the parent land or Overseas Dominions, we feel that by an adequate protective tariff, providing against the inroads of those without the Empire, we can further the policy of one flag to a greater extent than in any other manner.'"

Geographical Position.
"The geographical position of this Province in relation to the markets of the Orient and Australasia," Mr. Thomson, pointed out, "is a strong argument in connection with the development of industry here. We have been told by Government trade commissioners and by those who have visited those markets, of the immense field existing there for the sale of practically all lines we are capable of producing. Surely it is highly important that manufacturers should be encouraged to furnish freights through their products as outgoing cargoes for those ships of the Canadian Merchant Marine, and it is admitted that no shipping industry can exist without outgoing as well as incoming cargoes." After referring to the number and nature of industries established in British Columbia and what has been accomplished in the past and outlining the potential wealth of the Province in natural resources, Mr. Thomson concluded his statement by admitting that no shipping industry can exist without outgoing as well as incoming cargoes.

Is Food Supplied?
"Considerable talk was occasioned to-day by a paragraph appearing in The Sunday Times, under the heading: 'Who is feeding Macswiney?' I say 'Macswiney' is asking who is feeding him. There is no doubt at all that the Government is not giving him food, for the prison officials, priests and relatives, are giving him sufficient food to keep him alive. Pointing out that Macswiney and the Cork hunger strikers have virtually equalled Dr. Tanner's forty-day fast, the paper asks how the first twelve men to be found, Mayor Macswiney and eleven in Cork—when they tried to go without food, could equal Dr. Tanner's record, which excited the wonder of the world. In reply to this Arthur O'Brien, of the Irish Self-Determination League, said: 'No nourishment or food of any kind is being given to the Lord Mayor.' Macswiney to-day will send a message on behalf of himself and the hunger strikers in Cork jail to Irishmen throughout the world, thanking them for their sympathy and prayers, according to The Daily Mail. The fast of Dr. Henry S. Tanner, which lasted forty days, was carried out under the supervision of a New York medical college in the Summer of 1850. Dr. Tanner had previously abstained from food for periods of

SYMPATHY EXPRESSED FOR SOVIET RUSSIA

Funds Collected at Winnipeg Labor Meeting to Purchase Medical Supplies

Winnipeg, Sept. 20.—At a meeting of local labor men yesterday afternoon, held for the purpose of opening a campaign for the collection of funds for the purchase of medical supplies for Soviet Russia, a resolution was passed expressing sympathy with Russia in dire distress, condemning the most emphatic terms the continued blockade against Soviet Russia and pledging support of the campaign until the enemies who sought to turn Russia into a vast cemetery are defeated in their purpose. There were about 500 present and the collection amount to $287. The following resolution was proposed also: "That this meeting of working class representatives of different organizations in the city endorse wholeheartedly the whole doctrine and provisions of the Third International. The resolution was received with loud applause, but it was pointed out that the meeting had been called for the express purpose of getting funds for medical aid and not for a political purpose, such as approving of the Third International. Dr. Johannessen, the chairman agreed and ruled the resolution out of order.

ARRANGING FOR GOOD ROADS MEETING

Delegates Will Leave Coast
For Nelson on Sunday
Week

Two weeks hence delegates to the Good Roads League convention at Nelson, which will open October 5, will be on their way to the Kootenay capital. It is probable that A. W. Campbell, Federal Highways Commissioner, of Ottawa, will be present and speak on Federal aid to roads. Secretary H. Frank Bird, of the league, has received the assurance from President A. E. Forman, of the Canadian Good Roads Association, that not only will he attend himself, but the Association will also be represented by Past President S. L. Squire, chairman of the executive committee of the Dominion organization, and A. W. Findlay, a member of the executive.

Mr. Squire, who is a Toronto citizen, being honorary president of the Ontario Good Roads Association, will have for the subject of his address, "Roads." In addition to them Hon. J. H. King, Provincial Minister of Public Works, will speak on "Provincial Highways." It is expected to also have speakers from across the border. Herbert Cuthbert, executive secretary of the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association, Seattle, has signified his intention to be at Nelson. Mayor R. H. Gale, of Vancouver, president of the league, will preside, and Mayor J. A. McDonald, of Nelson, will give the address of welcome.

The City Council of Nelson has prepared a programme of entertainment which will include, on Tuesday afternoon, a trip by automobile to the city's hydro-electric power plant at Upper Bonnington; on Wednesday afternoon a launch trip on the West Arm; on Thursday evening a dance for the delegates, and on Friday a civic luncheon.

The convention will open on Tuesday morning, the delegates from the coast reaching Nelson on Monday night by the Kettle Valley train, leaving Vancouver on Sunday evening. At noon on Tuesday the annual good roads luncheon will be held in the Hume Hotel. It is understood that at this luncheon Dr. W. O. Rose, M.P.E. for Nelson, will welcome the delegates to his constituency, and have something to say on the good roads needs of the Kootenay. The election of officers on Wednesday will wind up the convention. Then follows the Union of B. C. Municipalities meeting.

SCHOOL EXPERT WILL OPEN OFFICE IN THIS CITY SOON

A message to The New Westminster Columbian from Cloverdale, Surrey Municipality, says that G. L. Lockhart, the consolidation expert, who has advised the Surrey and Chilliwack School Boards during their considerations of the proposals for coping with educational problems, has determined to become a permanent resident in British Columbia. He will open an office in Victoria at an early date, which will be in touch with his main business as school architect and adviser in the U. S. A., although it is his intention to establish a distinct British Columbia office.

The reasons which have actuated Mr. Lockhart are chiefly those which afford a tribute to the climate. Though he had suffered from throat and bronchial trouble for years, since coming to British Columbia some six months ago Mr. Lockhart has steadily improved in health and weight, and a recent medical examination resulted in his old affliction being declared cured. He intends to remain where health conditions are so favorable, and bring his family to British Columbia. His son, who has been something of an invalid for years, Mr. Lockhart hopes will also benefit by the change of residence to British Columbia.

An excellent concert was given by the Great War Veterans' Association in its clubhouse Saturday night. Old-time Scotch ballads, contributed by Comrade Porter and clog dances and comic songs by Dave Rylands, formed an interesting feature. Horace Potts sang "The Trumpeter" in excellent style, while the two Dobbies and Tom Obe, with a number of comic songs, brought down the house. Comrade Rooney's performance with the flute was well received as was that of Comrade Chairman. Comrade Harper, in his usual good form, rendered a fine whistling solo. The orchestra, under Comrade Sheret, attended during the whole evening. Great credit is due the management for these smokers to which all returned men are welcome.

PRESENTATION TOREVIEW COMMANDER

Mrs. Angus Galbraith Receives Pearl Set Arrow; Gift for Mrs. Ball

The silver tea given recently at the home of Mrs. Angus Galbraith for benefit of Queen Alexandra Review No. 14, proved a huge success socially and financially. The hostess was assisted in receiving her guests by Prov. Deputy Mrs. Lillian P. Hodgson.

In the dining room, aglow with the prettily decorated tea-tables, over which Mrs. Ricketts and Mrs. F. W. Laing presided, dainty refreshments were served by willing workers. Roses red and white were profusely used in the color scheme.

During the afternoon a most pleasing ceremony took place when Mrs. Galbraith, commanding a presentation by Mrs. Lillian P. Hodgson, P. D., with a beautiful arrow of solid gold with first pearl, emblematic of the splendid services rendered by her to the association; also a golden arrow to Mrs. Ball, who is also a valued worker of Queen Alexandra Review, for her services in connection with the "marathon" contest. In speaking of the splendid work given to their review by these ladies Mrs. Hodgson said: "No active member will rest until she also possesses the trophy."

ALICE.

Alice, curiously enough, is a man's name, not a woman's. Originally it was given to the sons of the family, and is without doubt, derived from the Anglo-Saxon Adalric, of which the feminine form was Adeliza. It means noble, in both its masculine and feminine form.

It is clear that Alice represents Adeliza and not Adeliza and that the proper feminine form would be Aliza. Some believe that Eliza, generally thought to be a derivative of Elizabeth, is this feminine form of Adeliza. Aliza is the representative of Adeliza, the Liber Vitae of Durham from the change of Adeliza from the first noble lady of that name who laid first noble lady of that name who laid her gifts upon the altar. By contraction, it became by steps Adeliza, Aliza, and Aliza.

Adalza is still given to daughters of noble families in Europe. Adalza, Adila and finally Aliz, are other contractions. Aliza is a derivative which represents an effort at euphony lacking in Alice but Aliza is not so derived as is popularly supposed, but has a completely different origin.

Alice is purely English with a slight Teutonic flavor, since another explanation of its origin is that the name is derived from the feminine Adalbert or Adelchen, signifying "daughter" in Frankland. Aliz or Aliza in Lombardy was naturalized in England when Aliz was Belle married Henry I.

PLEASED CONCERT ATCOLUMBIA STUDIO

Mrs. Burdon-Murphy, Principal of the Columbia School of Music, assisted by some of her pupils, entertained a number of friends at her new studio, 1106 Broad Street, on Saturday, when a very pleasant musical evening was enjoyed.

Besides her pupils, there were present Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dennis, and were heard in solos and duets. Mrs. Dennis's beautiful rich voice being heard to great advantage in the large room of the studio. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, the latter's charming voice giving great pleasure; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. O'Connell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Willis; Mr. and Mrs. Burrell, Mr. H. Baxter and his daughter, Miss Beatrice Baxter, of Boston, Mass., who has been studying under Mrs. Burdon-Murphy during her stay in Victoria, gave much pleasure by her finished rendering of "Arabesque" (Chaminade); Mrs. Har- graves, whose playing of the cello did not sustain her claim to be out of practice; Mr. and Mrs. C. Bales, Miss Duckitt and Mr. and Miss Richards.

Mrs. Burdon-Murphy gave an artistic rendering of a Chopin selection and sang in French an arrangement of Handel's Largo. She received many congratulations on her pupil's successes, of whom special mention should be made of Miss Mathews, whose very sweet voice gave great pleasure in "Caro Mio Ben"; Miss D. Kenney in "At Dawning"; and Miss Howard in "Rustle of Spring."

YOUTH KILLED WHEN TRAIN HIT GAS CAR

William J. Gillingham, Son of City Police Matron, Killed
at Colwood

William John Gillingham, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Gillingham, of 934 Queen's Avenue, died yesterday as a result of a collision at Colwood on the Canadian National Railway track between a northbound gasoline inspection car and the midday southbound freight train. His injuries were so serious that he died within five minutes after his arrival at the Jubilee Hospital, apparently from a blow on the head inflicted by a flying fragment.

It appears that a party of six men on an inspection tour, one of them a relative, invited young Gillingham to join the trip as an afternoon's holiday. As the gasoline car arrived in the neighborhood of Colwood a stop was made for a few moments, and the southbound freight train appeared unexpectedly on its way into the city. Before the mechanic could get the inspection car's engine into operation the freight had crashed into the lighter vehicle, despite the immediate application of the brakes by the engineer.

As soon as it appeared inevitable that there was going to be a smash, everyone on the trolley jumped for safety, leaving the car standing on the track. Apparently a flying fragment struck young Gillingham on the head, although exact details are somewhat confused, his body being found lying close to the rails as the freight was brought to a halt.

There being signs of life remaining, Gillingham was placed on the train and all speed made for Victoria, while a telephone message from Colwood secured the immediate attendance of Dr. M. Raynor and an ambulance at the terminus. The lad's injuries were too serious, however, and as already stated, he died within five minutes after his arrival at the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

Mrs. Gillingham, whose youngest son the lad is, holds the position of police matron in this city. In addition to his parents, he is survived by four brothers, Edwin, of Anyox; Harry, of Everett; Theodore, of Vancouver, and Earle, in this city. His sisters are Mrs. E. Myers, of this city; Misses Ruth and Dorothy, the last named in Prince Rupert. An inquest will be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, at the Sands Funeral Chapel, under the direction of Coroner Dr. E. C. Hart, and the funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2:15 from the Sands Funeral Chapel to Ross Bay cemetery, Rev. J. L. Batty officiating.

GIVES SALES TOTALS

Latest Invention Results in Adding Machine and Cash Register Being Combined

The latest cash register invention, called Class 4700, which adds up the totals of sales and issues an itemized bill of all sales with the automatically added total, has reached C. G. Owen, manager for the National Cash Register Co. here.

This cash register saves time in making out sales slips as it issues a bill with the item and their total and the name of the firm, to each customer, and keeps a record of the total sales of each bill so that at the end of the day it presents the grand total of all sales during the day and the exact amount of money that should have been put into the register.

"This new register makes for the speeding up of business by eliminating sales slip delays, eliminates the work of mental addition and does away with all chance of error on the part of sales clerks," said Mr. Owen. "It prevents forgetting to collect for one or more items when many items are sold to a customer. It makes public the record of the amount paid for every article bought by every customer and prevents disputes. It is a great help to employees as all amounts are correctly printed and added by machinery."

MISSIONARIES HAVE DIFFICULT LIFE IN HEART OF CHINA

Some Opinions From Parties
Arriving on Kashima
Maru

Among a number of returning missionaries from the interior stations of China, Japan, and the Straits Settlements, on board the Kashima Maru, which made port here to-day were Mr. and Mrs. Skraastadt, J. R. Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Sullivan and family.

Speaking of general conditions in the Far East, particularly in the interior province of China, all the missionaries referred to the hope for peaceful settlement of the disturbances that have been aggravating that country for the past decade. The Chinese Army, stated Mr. Skraastadt, is in no sense like other armies, and the Chinese were divided into divisions that operated under their own generals.

Those generals were an absolute authority in themselves and responsible apparently only to themselves for the actions of their men. In consequence the expected demobilization of the Chinese Army was not a matter of fact as yet, but there were hopes that it would be consummated without further pillage on the part of the reckless soldiers.

In the interior several scattered divisions, it was stated, were making the most of their opportunities, and constituted themselves into bands of pirates and robbers, who were wont to descend unexpectedly upon the unwary villagers and carry off all their worldly goods, putting to death all who resisted their efforts.

As the matter rested now in the missionary station of Chongking, Human, the Government was diplomatically inducing the soldiers to go to work, and while thus engaged they would be induced to surrender their arms. Once disarmed, the work of demobilization could be completed without further incident or loss of life.

Apart from the Chinese military situation, which was now only affecting the interior of the country, China was settled and getting more peaceful daily, they stated. A considerable growth in trade with the West was beginning to make itself felt, and reflected in the prosperity of all concerned.

Mr. Skraastadt and his party have been some seventeen years in the Far East and are now taking their first furlough. Some of the missionaries are connected with the London (England) Missionary Society, and some with the Lutheran Missions.

Langford, Toronto, general Sunday School secretary of the Methodist Church of Canada; W. B. Anderson, merchant, Portsmouth, Ohio; Rev. Charles W. Brewbaker, Ph. Juder, New Orleans, La., children's division superintendent of the Louisiana State S. S. Association; E. E. McCurdy, president Lebanon County S. S. A., Lebanon, Pa.; Rev. Frederick M. McGaw, Mount Vernon, Iowa, professor Cornell College; George W. Pennington, Pittsburg, Pa., general secretary Allegheny County S. S. A., and A. Van Carter, New Orleans, La., general secretary Louisiana State S. S. A.

George W. Pennington, of Pittsburg, is in charge of the party sailing. He was for ten years secretary to the W. N. Hartshorn of Boston, chairman of the International committee, and for four years Sunday School secretary to late H. J. Heinz, of Pittsburg, chairman of the world's committee. At the close of the convention he will take a large party through Japan, Korea and China, returning via Honolulu to San Francisco.

The trade situation on the Pacific, as far as it affects lumber shipments, is on the increase in no uncertain manner in his opinion, and that the future of the four wooden barquentines of the Victoria Shipowners, Ltd., is indeed rosy.

Lumber shipments to Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, form one of the most frequent cargoes of the wooden sailing craft in the Pacific trade at the moment, and already the future of the Victoria barquentines is beginning to loom up brightly with prospective and constant cargoes at a figure that will render the construction to appear in the nature of a happy foreboding.

The rising and ever rising cost of coal, the scarcity of crude oil and all lines of similar fuel for power is throwing the old time sailing vessel into the forefront again for ship-owners in which time is but a small factor, stated General Clark. In voicing the above opinion, Gen. Clark is speaking for the consensus of opinion on the coast in the matter of wooden sailing ships, his views being widely held by many concerned in the shipping business on the Pacific.

Chris Chubb, the builder of the four wooden barquentines for the Victoria Shipowners, Ltd., stated similar views the other day, and added that the next ten years would be the high level of successful venture for the sailing craft.

While lumber cargoes to the other British Colonies are the bulk of the sailing vessels' trade at the moment, it is thought that a general cargo trade will be developed along these lines when the fleet gets in operation.

The foresight of the Victorians who promoted the idea, with the generous assistance of the Federal Government in the substantial backing received, is then likely to bear fruit in the years to come, it is stated, and the success of the first Victoria fleet of barquentines is likely to lead to even greater strides in taking a share of the world's traffic across the oceans in the future.

KASHIMA MARU BERTHED TO-DAY

Many Passengers Made Trip From Orient in Fourteen-day Run

Brig.-Gen. R. P. Clark Optmistic Over Future of Four Victoria Barquentines

The big S. Y. K. liner Kashima Maru berthed to-day after a fourteen day run from the Orient. Captain K. Itsumo stated that with the exception of the last leg of the voyage the weather had been exceptionally fine, but that during the last few days the Kashima had dipped into heavy seas, and off the west coast had run into dense fog. The vessel was due at William Head at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but was held in fog, not arriving there until well after sundown. Gaining a clear bill of health the Kashima tied up at the Outer Wharf at 8.30 o'clock this morning with 75 passengers and 435 tons of general freight for this port.

After disembarking here the Kashima retraced its steps to Seattle, for which port she carries 250 passengers and several thousand tons of freight. Silks and chinaware forming the bulk of the cargo.

On board the liner in the inbound voyage were Mr. Abe, president of the Canadian-Japanese Association, Vancouver, and Madame Shimidzu, wife of the Japanese consul-general at Ottawa. Several parties of missionaries returning from China stations, and a number of Americans returning from Manila were among the passengers and officers on board the Kashima Maru. For weeks past no vessel outbound for the Orient has been carrying numbers of delegates to the Sunday School Convention, while through Canada and the United States have come most of the delegates from the Old Country and even many points in Europe.

A special building has been erected at Tokyo to provide for the space necessary for the gigantic conference at which will be represented almost every nation in the world. The building is now in course of construction and is being built after the Japanese style of architecture with facades and pinnacles. While enormous in size the Sunday School Conference building is constructed simply, and capable of being pulled apart after the conclusion of the conference.

As a result of the tremendous influx of the city of Tokyo is rapidly filling up, accommodation is becoming a matter of ever increasing difficulty, it is stated.

Seattle, Sept. 20.—Back in Seattle after a voyage around the world, the 4,600-ton wooden motorship Babinda, product of the Japanese Waterways of the Patten-MacDonald Shipbuilding Company has arrived to load for west coast ports of Central and South America in the service of the Pacific Motorship Company. She left Seattle for Seattle eleven months ago as a brand new ship and since then has voyaged tens of thousands of miles with a flawless record, her hull being as tight and dry today as when she first put out to sea.

In this, she comes up to the standard of the other wooden motorships built in Seattle, the success of these vessels in actual operations, having helped shatter the campaign which eastern interests launched against the wooden carriers of the Northwest.

Ordered by Australia. The Babinda was one of the motorships originally ordered from the Australian Commonwealth Government, which sold the vessels a year ago to J. E. Chilberg, of Seattle. Last Spring Mr. Chilberg sold the Patten-MacDonald ships to the Pacific Motorship Company of San Francisco, of the Richard J. Ringwood is president.

On her maiden voyage, the Babinda sailed from Seattle to South America, and after a series of voyages that circumnavigated the globe. On the voyage back to the Coast, she came from Buenos Ayres, arriving in San Francisco several weeks ago. She came to Seattle with several hundred tons of San Francisco freight for local delivery. The motorship is now loading at Pier 1 for her first voyage in the Pacific Motorship Company's new service from Seattle and other Pacific Coast ports to the west coast of central and South America.

New Loading Floor. She is loading 700 tons of flour here and will shift to Port Blakeley to take on 255,000 feet of lumber, sailing on the place Sunday evening before coming to Seattle. She loaded 600 tons of flour in Vancouver, B. C., and 900 tons of the same product in Tacoma. In addition she has shipments of canned salmon from the Sound.

The Babinda is commanded by Captain E. W. Cullen. The motorship Babinda of the same name is on her way back to Seattle from her first voyage in the Pacific Motorship Company's service and is expected here the latter part of this month or the fore part of October.

Vanouver Now Expects Coughlan Dock to Pass. Vancouver, Sept. 20.—It was stated by an authoritative source to-day that the contract for the Coughlan drydock on Burrard Inlet would be signed in the next few days or as soon as Hon. F. B. McCurdy, Minister of Public Works, returns to Ottawa. It is expected work on the drydock which will be 750 feet long, will commence within thirty days of the signing of the contract.

The C. P. O. S. freighter Montele is due to berth here to-night after calling at Union Bay at eleven o'clock at the Outer Wharf, and will put to sea on the outbound voyage at midnight, it is stated.

Flower Show. Entries in the flower show were rather slow in coming in, officials state, and it was impossible to get a full list of exhibitors. Some fine dahlias, carnations and other fall flowers were on exhibition, however, and by this afternoon, it is expected, the agricultural building will be a sight worth seeing. Figures regarding the fruit entries, too, were not given out to-day, but a splendid exhibition of all kinds of fall fruit is promised.

One feature of the agricultural building is a fine display of honey, exhibited by the Provincial Government.

Fine Home Products Fair. To a large section of the public the Home Products Fair will be the most interesting feature of the Fair. This year's Home Products display, in fact, is expected to surpass any previous fair, both in the variety of products exhibited, and the manner in which exhibits have been arranged. George L. Warren, the energetic manager of the Home Products Fair, this morning stated that sixty different firms were displaying home products and that every foot of space available in the Home Products Building had been taken. Indeed, it had been necessary to refuse three entries this morning, Mr. Warren said.

As some of the exhibits were still in various stages of erection this morning it is too early to describe them in detail. A short visit to the Home Products Building, however, convinces even the most casual observer that the Fair will show off to the utmost advantage a large proportion of the leading products manufactured in Victoria. The exhibits, indeed, range from soap to lumber, and from furniture to candy boxes. Some of the features of the display are to be the manufacture of furniture in one booth and the operation of a complete wireless outfit, connected with a aerial in the Fair grounds, in another.

Well Arranged. Mr. Warren and his assistants, have been most successful in arranging the exhibits in a most interesting space to the various firms. Thus all eatables, such as canned goods and pickles are collected together along one side of the building, and all electrical devices have a special section to themselves.

The big attraction of the Fair to-night is to be in the Home Products Building. Here Beatty's orchestra will give a concert all evening, special accommodation being arranged for the audience. A big dance is to proceed on the second floor simultaneously. There are 5,000 square feet of dancing space on this floor and Oswald's orchestra is to supply the music. Dancing will start at 8 o'clock and continue until eleven.

"We are very well satisfied with the arrangements this year," Mr. Warren remarked to a Times representative to-day. "The business houses of the city are giving the Fair fine support and it is apparent that it will be better than ever before in many ways. We anticipate, indeed, that the Home Products Fair will be, perhaps, the most popular feature of the whole exhibition."

Machinery Displayed. Of particular interest to agriculturists and farmers is the machinery building in which there are displayed, tractors, trucks, cultivators and other machinery of standard make. Some of the best known of Victoria automobile and hardware firms are placing exhibits in the classes.

The Women's Building is expected to be a mecca for housewives during Fair Week. Here are displayed home cooking, home dress-making, and various other things all showing the possibilities of the oven and the needle. An interesting exhibit is an old-fashioned spinning wheel which probably was plied by busy housewives a hundred years ago.

Automobile Show. Entries in the automobile show were not complete this morning, but preparations proceeding in the Automobile Building forecasted the best exhibition of the kind ever seen here. A large number of the best-known local automobile companies are placing their cars on display.

Horses Work Out. Everything is ready now for the big race meet which is to start at the Fair grounds to-morrow. Well over a hundred horses are stabled at the Willows in preparation for the meet and a number of the animals were given a work-out over the track this morning. Crowds of eager race fans watched them striving to pick winners in the forthcoming races.

question. All members are requested to make it their business to express themselves definitely on this subject, which is of vital importance to all ex-service men.

C. M. Tate, the Indian Missionary, will give a lantern lecture on Indian Life and Customs, to-night at 8

placed in control of all those doing tonorial honors at the Fair this year, has opened up headquarters under the racetrack grandstand. Mr.
Shanks has been instructed to supervise all barbering activities on the whole of the Fair grounds and enforce union hours, union conditions and union pay.

Ilmoyle and John Lock & Son both pleaded guilty in the city police court this morning to charges of selling was the first time that he had not been called upon to inspect meat when McIlmoyle had purchased sup-veth Wells will entertain the soldiers at Esquimalt Hospital to-night under the auspices of the G. W. V. A. He will show lantern slides depicting thrilling scenes in the Malay jungles snakes and giant apes. He will tell stories of Malay pirates, and Dyaks, and the boys look forward to one of the best entertainments they have seen since they left the Y. M. C. A.'s

May Have Sooke Brigade.—After a visit to the district last week, F. A.
Rayner, secretary of the Victoria Branch of the Navy League, is hopeful that it will be possible to incubate a Boys' Naval Brigade at Sooke in the near future. While at Sooke Mr. Rayner addressed the residents on the work of the Navy League and they seemed anxious to have a local brigade. Some of the boys of the district, who would join such a brigade, afforded the secretary an exhibition of splicing which they had learned from two fishermen of nearby waters.

Sports Committee Entertained.—
The sports committee of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association was in charge of the arrangements for last Saturday night's concert in the club rooms, which has become such a popular week-end entertainment, and the programme submitted met with great appreciation. A feature of the evening was a number of short addresses on the value of athletics and the importance of every member of the Army and Navy Veterans' association in giving full support to the activities of the sports committee.

G. W. V. A. Smoker.—The regular
Saturday night smoker at the G. W.
V. A. proved very successful under the management of Comrade Jack Neary, manager of the club rooms.
Comrade Bryson took the chair and the G. W. V. A. orchestra under the able leadership of Comrade Sheret rendered some splendid selections, both classic and comic. Comrade Potter won loud applause by his Scottish songs. Dave Rylands brought down the house with his clog dancing and comic songs.
Horace Potts sang "The Trumper" in fine style, and the two Dobbies and Tom Obee are too well-known to need further explanation. Comrades Charman and Rooney gave excellent turns, and a whistling solo by Comrade Harper completed the most excellent programme yet seen at the G. W. V. A.

To Federate Parent-Teachers.—At a well attended meeting of the Craigflower Parent-Teachers' Association held on Friday evening in the Craigflower School it was decided that an effort should be made to form a central body for the Parent-Teachers' Associations of Saanich, with a view to taking an active part in the next election of school trustees. Trustee Diggon was the only member of the School Board in attendance, and was somewhat criticised for his stand regarding the enforcement of the school district boundary between the Craigflower and Tillamook schools. The meeting was in favor of compelling

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE RECORDED ON INSTRUMENT HERE

A well recorded seismic disturbance took place to-day left a record for two and a half hours on the seismograph at Gonzales Observatory, commencing at 8.49 o'clock this morning.

BRITAIN'S TONNAGE SLOWLY RECOVERING FROM WAR RAVAGES

Mr. Yarrow Confident Balance of Merchant Marine Tonnage to Remain British

That although the world's tonnage is now greater than before the war by a considerable measure, due mainly to the shipbuilding activities of Japan and America, the British tonnage afloat is actually less than its pre-war figures, is the opinion of Norman A. Yarrow, who with his family arrived back in Victoria yesterday after an extended tour in the Old Country, where he visited the parent works of the famous Yarrow organization on the banks of the Clyde.
This decrease in proportionate ratio that exists to-day in the position of British shipping cannot be entirely rectified for some years, he added, but the prominent builders of the Old Country were converting their yards back from war usage to commercial activity as fast as the needs of the moment permitted.

Contracts now are mainly for merchant shipping in all the yards of the Old Country, but the shipbuilding firms are still seriously handicapped, being in the transition stage between war and peace. The latter situation is still serious, and the workers are split among themselves in many cases,
Mr. Yarrow stated.

Due directly to the unsettled condition of British labor the economic situation is still a little unsettled, and the entire country is feeling the transition stages of the change from war to peace very seriously. These conditions will right themselves in time, stated Mr. Yarrow, and it will only be a relatively short time until Great Britain gets back again at the head of the world in the tonnage of its merchant marine.

SPENCER'S GIFT TO SALVATION DRIVE

Although the number of volunteers to assist in the Salvation Army's drive for funds is very small up to the present, J. C. Willard, the campaign manager for the drive which opened this morning, states that they have got away to a good start and he is optimistic that by the end of the week a sum sufficient to guarantee the continuance of maintenance of this splendid work will have been donated by Victorians. Up to noon to-day not a solicitor had been met with, and although some of the subscriptions are not large they clearly indicate the public's appreciation of the good done in and for the community by the Salvation Army.

One of the first donations in the business section was the handsome one of $100 from David Spencer's, Ltd., and the realization of the campaign feel that this splendid example of generosity will be followed by other leading firms. The proceeds of the drive will be used in the Salvation Army's Home Service branch—a branch which carries on a wonderful, though non-spectacular work, for the poor and derelicts of the city.

Price Triumphs Over Thomas in Golf Final

Won City Championship By Four Up and Three to Play; Price Played Steadily and Showed Fine Form on the Greens; Thomas Led on Morning's Play But Fell Off in Afternoon.

A. V. Price, of the United Services Golf Club, is the first golf champion of Victoria. He won the title by defeating Frank Thomas, of the Colwood Golf and Country Club, at the Colwood links yesterday by four up and three to play. The victory of Price brings to a conclusion the first city golf championship ever held in Victoria and settles the old argument as to who are the best golfers.

Price played a remarkably steady game yesterday. Throughout the earlier rounds of the tournament, played two weeks ago, Price showed up strongly. His victory over Biggerstaffe Wilson, following the stylish protest, placed him in the final with Frank Thomas, a hard driver. Owing to the fact that there was not sufficient time during the tournament week-end to play the final it was arranged to have the players compete yesterday.

Thomas led in morning. In the morning eighteen holes were played and Thomas was one up at the luncheon period. The Colwood star out-drove Price but there was little to pick between them on the greens. The gallery which followed the players was treated to some exceptionally fine golf and applauded the fine strokes.

LACROSSE MEN TO MEET TO CONSIDER B.C.A.A.U. EDICT

All members of the Victoria Amateur Lacrosse League are requested to attend a meeting to be held this evening at eight o'clock in the Metropolitan Hotel, to consider what action will be taken in regard to the suspension of many athletes by the local body of the B.C.A.A.U.

Both players drove a nice long ball throughout the match. Thomas was a little better in this department but Price surpassed him in putting. The golf championship has been an unqualified success. About 130 golfers, representing every player of merit in this city, competed in the opening rounds of the tournament. The ladies' championship was won by Mrs. Patterson and Mr. Price goes the men's title and the Sayward Cup, which was donated by J. A. Sayward, president of the Colwood Club.

The championship is to be made an annual affair. Next year the tournament will be held at the Oak Bay links.

Expected to Do Well in Willows Race Meet

IKE MILLS

When Ike Mills, C. Dickerson's popular thoroughbred, starts at the Willows this week during the seven days' race meet which will be staged in connection with the Provincial Exhibition, Victoria sport enthusiasts will see in action one of the most consistent runners on the Pacific Coast. Ike Mills is not a British Columbia horse and made his first appearance in the Northwest this season when he raced on the Lower Mainland. Before coming to the Coast he started at Reno, Nevada, fourteen times, and never finished lower than second. There are quite a number of thoroughbreds now stabled at the Willows faster than this gelding, but when entered in his own class he is exceptionally hard to beat. At the Vancouver meetings he faced Starter Jim Haley on eight different occasions and finished first, second or third each time out.

Indians and Dodgers Appear Strongest Teams

New York, Sept. 20.—The Brooklyn Nationals and Cleveland Americans appear the strongest teams in the major league pennant races which today entered the final two-weeks' sprint. The Chicago Americans are close behind the Indians, however, and may oust them from first place in the series starting Thursday.

The Brooklyn Nationals have a lead of five games over New York, and can clinch the pennant by winning six of their eight remaining contests. New York, with 12 to play, and Cincinnati, with 16, could then win all their games without coming up to the Dodgers. If Cleveland Americans win seven out of their 13 games, Chicago would have to win seven out of ten, and New York eight out of nine to equal them.

Dodgers Are Strong. While Brooklyn was winning Sunday, New York kept pace by defeating Cincinnati in a hard 11-inning contestants found very little difficulty in performing the various tests, but the very cold water bothered the male members.

BRADFORD'S DEFEAT HULL SURPRISE

Piled Up Tremendous Score Which Critics Cannot Account For—Big Results

London, Sept. 20.—(Canadian Associated Press).—The outstanding feature of the Rugby games played on Saturday was Hull's defeat of Bradford by the enormous score of 60 to 4, in the Northern Union series. In the case of clubs of Bradford's class, such a defeat is so overwhelming as to be unaccountable.

The Rugby Union matches also gave two or three sweeping results. Northampton's victory over Bedford came from very superior play, while Llanelli gave Penarth no chance and Plymouth accumulated points all the time from Penarth.

ENGLAND WINS IN TWO-DAY MATCH

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—The inconclusive team of England, on Saturday won the two-days' cricket match with the All-Philadelphia eleven by five wickets.

Must Rule All Players Out of Amateur Sport

Arthur Manson, President of B. C. A. A. U., Says Union Has No Other Alternative; Vancouver Ball Players Who Played Against Elks Saturday Will Suffer.

"All the players who competed in the baseball games on Saturday afternoon between Arnold & Quigley and the Elks must be ruled out of amateur sport. Their action in playing with and against Walter Gravlin makes it necessary for this ruling to be made. No action can be taken by the amateur union to prevent it."

This statement was made to the Sporting Editor of The Times this morning by Arthur Manson, president of the B. C. A. A. U. He deplored the necessity of having to take such drastic action and held sympathy for the athletes who must suffer but declared that the managers of the clubs should be ruled out of amateur sport forever.

VANCOUVER RENEWS ITS CALL FOR BERTH IN COAST LEAGUE

Plenty of Sport Will Be Provided at Willows Tomorrow—Fine Horses

"They're off." This call, familiar to race-track followers throughout the world, will be heard at the Willows tomorrow for the first time in seven years, when horse racing is revived in Victoria. Over one hundred and twenty horses are stabled at the track and while only about one-third of this number will make their appearance on the opening day, good sport is assured. The seven-day meet is being staged in connection with the Provincial Exhibition and will undoubtedly prove to be one of the most successful yet held here.

The thoroughbreds to-morrow will be called upon to perform in the mud and it is practically certain that several surprises will occur. On the Lower Mainland this summer at the various meetings held there the horses were never called upon to display their ability on a heavy track, but even though the weather clears, the mud during the past week assures a muddy track for opening day.

Seven Races. All arrangements for the initial card have been completed. The programme is now in the hands of the printer and overnight entries will be available this evening about five o'clock. Seven races are scheduled. About twenty additional horses came to the exhibition at Hastings Park last week and are in fine condition.

Quite a large number of Seattle and Vancouver sportsmen are already here for the race meeting, according to horsemen who reached Victoria today. Nearly two hundred Vancouver followers of the sport arrived this morning on the Princess Mary and it is reported that at least fifty Seattle sportsmen will be here in time for the opening event.

JUNIORS SHOW FINE
ABILITY AT TENNIS

Marion Bullock-Webster and Gerald Cunningham Are
New B. C. Champions

The junior tennis championships of British Columbia for boys and girls under 16, for 1920, were decided on Saturday afternoon in lovely weather but rather heavy courts owing to the recent rains. Notwithstanding, excellent play prevailed in most of the matches. In the morning the following was the results of the play in the second round:

Marion Bullock-Webster beat Helen Wilson, 7-5, 6-2.
Poppy Shephard beat Marion Cameron, 6-3, 6-2.
Patsy Hunning beat Margaret Brady, 6-1, 6-0.
Hope Leeming beat Geraldine Payne, 6-0, 6-2.

In the afternoon Marion Bullock-Webster just managed to defeat Poppy Shephard in the semi-final in the last set of a three-set match by the score of 8-6, having lost the first set 6-8, but winning the second 6-2. A great deal of praise is due to the loser for the fine struggle she put up, and it is expected that another year Poppy Shephard will be a strong contender for the championship. Hope Leeming in the other semi-final defeated Patsy Hunning rather easily, 6-0, 6-2.

A Close Final.

The final between Marion Bullock-Webster and Hope Leeming was a close affair from beginning to end, and as the score will show, not much difference between the players. The first set was a long drawn out battle, exciting and interesting at every stage, the set going to Marion Bullock-Webster 10-8. The second set, though equally well contested, and close, was won by Marion Bullock-Webster by a score of 6-4. The winner deserved her victory, but the loser has nothing to be ashamed of.

The standard of play shown by the girls in this competition was very high and augurs well for the future of tennis in Victoria. This applies equally to the boys' competition, which resulted in Gerald Cunningham winning the cup and championship by defeating A. N. (Toby) Hodgins in the final after a splendidly fought match of three sets, in which he lost the first set 4-6, making a splendid recovery and winning the second set 6-3 by sheer vigor of his drives and fast service. In the third set he was leading 4-1, 5-2, when Hodgins, who had been playing a very loose game, lightened up and brought the score to 5-4, but failed to hold his opponent, who won 6-4. Among the boys who showed promise were Norman Fell, Sholto Watt, R. Scott-Moncrieff. The two finalists had to work hard in most of the rounds. Cunningham only managing to dispose of R. Scott-Moncrieff in three sets. The latter shows good form and has all the earmarks of a player. The scores in the boys' contest follow:

Second Round.

Norman Fell beat Sholto Watt, 6-0, 8-6.
Cunningham beat R. Scott-Moncrieff 6-2, 4-8, 6-2.
Hodgins beat W. S. Oliver, 6-3, 6-2.

Third Round.

Cunningham beat Matthews, 6-0, 7-5.
Hodgins beat Fell, 7-5, 6-4.

Final.

Cunningham beat Hodgins, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4.

Won On Merits.

The winners of the junior championships, both boys and girls, have proved that it was by actual merit they have won it. Among the former winners who are making names for themselves in the tennis world are Jack Wright, the Spokane crack, G. H. Peers, this year's champion of B. C. for boys under 21; John S. Proctor, this year's winner of the boys under 17 championship of B.C., and Marjorie Leeming, a three years in succession winner, has made a reputation for herself which is not confined to British Columbia. The contest this year, owing to Labor Day being late and schools not opening till after that date, was more or less hurried, and there has been suggestions to the effect that this competition would have more entries and be of more value if held immediately after the closing of the schools at the end of June. No doubt those in charge will give every consideration to the matter.

Citizens Loose on Celebration Equal to Armistice

Calgary, Sept. 20.—Close to six thousand people watched the Calgary Bronks administer a slaughtering defeat to the Regina Senators in the ninth and deciding game of the Western Canada League, winning the pennant by a score of 17 to 0. The Senators went to pieces under the snappy playing of the Bronks and the gruelling rooting of the 6,000 excited fans.

Steingraffe held the Senators to three hits, and allowed only one man to get to second and not a man to third. Regina fielding was full of errors, ten being recorded against the team, while the Bronks played errorless ball. The crowd carried Steingraffe and Devine round the field on their shoulders after the game, after which a parade was held through the city, and to the city hall. It was the wildest night Calgary has seen since the armistice.

TO PLAY DECIDING GAME IN VANCOUVERElks Will Journey to Mainland on Saturday—Broke Even in Double-Header

As a result of the Elks and Arnold and Quigley breaking even in a double-header at the Stadium on Saturday afternoon the amateur baseball championship of British Columbia is still hanging in the balance. The Elks will journey to Vancouver on Saturday next to play the deciding game.

The games on Saturday were exceptionally good and drew a fair crowd. Doc Balcorn, the mainstay of the Elks' pitching staff, had the misfortune to break his arm in the second game. He was called upon to relieve Townsend in the first game, which was lost, but he went on the mound in the second game, which the locals won. Balcorn's arm snapped towards the close and Gravelin relieved him.

OLD COUNTRY SOCCER NOTES

London, Sept. 19.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The soccer league contests attracted the usual multitude of spectators. The feature of the matches was the reversal of form which, even for football, were extraordinary. All clubs were meeting opponents of the previous week, and sixteen of the thirty-three encounters had indifferent results, five in the First Division, seven in the Second and four in the Third, fortune almost invariably favoring the teams playing on their own grounds, thus affording strong support of the theory of the advantage enjoyed by home players. The most striking illustration of this was afforded by Clapton's five-goal victory over Stockport, who last week won by six to nothing.

An example of form more than confirmed was given in Watford's defeat of Northampton, 7 to 1. Last week Watford won one to nothing. Other good winning margins in the Third Division were Merthyr's 6 to 1 against Gillingham and Brighton's 4 to 0 over Brentford. The results further emphasized the small number of unbeaten clubs so early in the season. No club has played more than seven matches, few more than six, and the only club clear of losses is Shields, which, though little beyond the recruitment stage in league football, stands head of the Second Division. Huddersfield had an excellent victory over Bradford City on the latter's ground, following a 1 to 0 win at home last week, and this young club leads the First Division, to which it won admission on last season's work. Three only of thirty-three clubs in the league have not yet won any matches, namely Middlesbrough and Derby in the First Division, and Newport in the Third Division. West Bromwich, last year's league champions, registered their first victory on Saturday by beating Bolton.

"THE TEETH OF THE TIGER"

Good Detective Story—Don't Miss It
With David Powell, Marguerite Courtot and Myrtle Stedman

Probably the best detective story—writer of to-day is Maurice Le Blanc. His famous crook character, Arsene Lupin, is known all over the world as one of the most fascinating characters of fiction. And of all the Arsene Lupin stories, none is more fascinating, more intriguing, than "The Teeth of the Tiger." This has been made into a Paramount picture, with David Powell in the role of the fascinating crook—now turned straight and acting as a detective. In support are Marguerite Courtot and Myrtle Stedman. The cast is practically all-star. "The Teeth of the Tiger" on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Don't miss it!

"FRIVOLITIES" BOTH THRILL AND AMUSE

Revue Has Burlesque on Political, Social, and Theatrical Episodes

"Frivolities of 1920," the G. M. Anderson revue which will sweep on to the stage of the Royal Theatre, Sept. 20 and 21, is a luxurious composite of singing, laughing and dancing specialties and novelties embellished on a background of vividly garbed femininity and set in scenes that are at once gay, colorful and bizarre.

G. M. Anderson—a decade ago the leading celluloid cowpuncher of the universe—has not been content to mould this his first revue, along with his efforts to make "Frivolities" distinctive in all its phrases he has produced an entertainment that thrills the eye and at the same time fills it. And right is not the only sense that is sated in "Frivolities." It has a vast and pleasant appeal to the ear, and such important organs as the toes and shoulders will find in it a melodious quality to which they cannot be irresponsible.

"Frivolities" moves entirely in the present. Its rapid tempo does not permit it to ponder over the past. Current, political, social theatrical episodes are adroitly burlesqued, but as for plot, this revue scorns it and admits the score. It is a fleet succession of comic and lyric surprises framed in color-splashed settings. The parade of incidents is woven together with musical score that is now lazy and languorous-suggestive of the tropics—now swift and jazzical—reminiscent of Broadway and the Boardwalk.

Conspicuous in the cast of one hundred which Mr. Anderson has assembled to decorate his first revue are the names of Carlton Chase, Edward Gallagher and Joseph Rolley, black and white disciples of the fun-making cult; the Voltaire Sisters, lithe and graceful dancers, Val and Ernie Stanton, conversational speedsters; Lella Riccardi—Dolly Best—Edward Metcalf, Will Goodall, Kitty Kelly and Iva Moreland. Encircling this deft and hilarious crew is the "frivol chorus" of fifty—a shapely and fair collection of young women such as one platform infrequently supports. They offer a decidedly pleasant optical diversion to the fatigued commercial gentlemen, the bored broker and that section of the community that is not insensible to scenic beauty. This colorful revue comes to the Royal practically direct from long New York, Boston and San Francisco engagements.

HUGE TASK TO MAKE THE COPPERHEAD FILM

Picture at Dominion Required Village to Be Built Expressly For It

The task confronting the production of the screen version of Augustus Thomas' great play, "The Copperhead," which will be on view at the Dominion Theatre this week, was a considerable one. It involved constructing and twice reconstructing an entire village, the employing, marshalling, costuming, and directing of literally thousands of "extras," and endless research and study of archives pertaining to the period of the Mexican and Civil Wars. Two-Night-Booking at Pantages of Ever Popular Favorite

If the advance booking during the past week-end at the Pantages Theatre may be taken as a criterion, then it seems perfectly assured that this delightful and ever-popular play will be patronized by packed houses both to-night and to-morrow. Large family parties have been securing bookings, and it seems that many a paterfamilias is determined that his young hopefuls shall have the opportunity of seeing this classic farce, which gave him so much enjoyment when he first saw it, well, many years ago.

As is probably well-known, the cast have been rehearsing for the last few weeks, and their final and dress rehearsal witnessed during the week-end was pronounced by all a huge and unqualified success, running with great smoothness and without a hitch anywhere.

ROMANCE OF PRETTY COUNTRY MAIDEN

Variety's Comedy "Down on the Farm" Will Be Refreshing

Something new under the sun will be revealed at the Variety Theatre to-day when that very important planet is seen rising over the hills that looked down off the farm in Mack Sennett's latest triumph, "Down on the Farm."

This five-reel comedy sensation released by United Artists will be seen for the first time in this community and will be the featured offering on the big programme for six days.

"Down on the Farm" presents Louise Fazenda, Marie Prevost and Ben Turpin in the leading roles, with James Finlayson, Harry Gribbon, Bert Roach, Billy Armstrong, and John Henry, Jr., in important characterizations, while Teddy, the Great Dane star, Pepper, the feline actress, and all the feathered and four-footed folk of Sennett's great organization will appear in various exciting episodes in which hilarity and thrills, comedy and satire, humor and legitimate drama are mixed in a veritable hilarity of film entertainment.

This blend of many elements is what gives "Down on the Farm" its unique character, and the claim is made for it that it provided something different from anything that Mr. Sennett has even accomplished in comedy, and, therefore, of course, different from anything any producer has ever evolved in screen entertainment.

Though the plot is melodramatic and concerns the romance of a pretty maiden of rustic life, a menacing mortgage, a villainous landlord and a harassed and beautiful wife, the treatment will be found as new as it is refreshing and different. It is a masterpiece from the hands of the producer who has made more footage of fun than any three producers of merriment in motion pictures.

One week after she assumed office as Sheriff of Stephens county, Okla., Mrs. William Cates seized three whiskey stills.

The women of Pitcairn Island are not only graceful but noted for their vigor. It is a common sight to see the young women of the island go up and down the steep, rocky shores carrying barrels of water or other heavy burdens on their shoulders, apparently with as much ease as the young men do.

Mrs. John Lawrence, recently appointed a member of the Pennsylvania State Forestry Commission, is the second woman to serve as a member of the commission. Mrs. Lawrence, who is the daughter of the late William Flinn, of Pittsburgh, is an ardent suffragist.

SKETCHED INTERIOR UNDER DIFFICULTIES

Scene in "Teeth of the Tiger" at Romano Secured Under Obstacles

In order that a number of scenes in "Teeth of the Tiger," the new Paramount-Artcraft picture centering around the latest adventure of Arsene Lupin, which is coming to the Romano Theatre this week might be absolutely correct as to atmospheric detail, permission was secured from Police Commissioner Enright of New York City, to sketch the interior of the office of the chief of detectives at police headquarters. A member of the art staff of the studio was assigned to the work. It so happened that it was the day after the commission of the bomb outrages by the "Reds" in several cities, and the chief's office was the busiest place in New York. The artist sat in the ante-room vainly awaiting admittance while detectives and reporters rushed in and out.

It began to appear certain that he was not going to get in so with pad and pencil concealed under his hat he sketched part of the room each time the door was opened, changing his seat as the progress of his drawing required. One corner of the room he could not see, but by taking a line on the building across the street he discovered he could finish the sketch from there. Gaining permission to enter, he completed his task just in time to receive Commissioner Enright's polite regrets that he could not receive him that day. Moral—All the good detectives are not on the police force.

"LA TOSCA" WILL APPEAR SATURDAY

Scotti Opera Company Will Be Represented By Fine Organization

Most travelling operatic organizations are content with one prima donna, and then possibly the lady is only entitled to the designation by courtesy. Not so the Scotti Grand Opera Company, which is paying this city a visit on Saturday night next, in the well-known opera "La Tosca" and will appear at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

In addition the Mme. Florence Easton, a prima donna assoluta, Antonio Scotti has with him that rarest of singers, Miss Marie Sundelius, Scandinavia has given us Gade and Greig among composers and Jenny Lind and Christine Nilsson among singers. To the picturesque north of Europe we are also indebted for Marie Sundelius, who personifies all that is most fascinating in her individuality and art. Her voice is of crystalline purity and bird-like sweetness, and to hear her in the native songs of her country is to enjoy a rare musical treat. The training she received in Europe and this country for she has been for some years a favorite singer in America, has also served to make her one of the most prominent and valued members of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Her Mirella in "La Boheme," Micaela in "Carmen," and her Mermade in "Oberon" are among the most exquisite musical experiences of habitués of the Metropolitan Opera, while, on the other hand, she can essay roles of larger sweep and profounder meaning with complete success. For Miss Sundelius is in all essentials a thoroughly well-trained operatic artist. With Mr. Scotti and his eminent associates

EXTRAVAGANZA TO COME SHORTLY

Royal Will Present "Hello Alexander" Next Week in Victoria

The Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert will present McIntyre and Heath in the new spectacular musical extravaganza, "Hello, Alexander" at the Royal Victoria theatre Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 27 and 28, for an engagement of two nights. This, the most pretentious production in which these celebrated blackface comedy stars have ever appeared, ran for many weeks at the 44th Street Theatre in New York and at the Garrick Theatre in Chicago, attracting great audiences and declared an altogether novel and delightful offering. McIntyre and Heath recently celebrated the forty-sixth anniversary of their stage partnership, establishing by a wide margin a record unique in the annals of the theatre. The originality and high quality of their foolery is quite as unique as the record of their partnership, for during all the years no comedy team has ever approached their artistic achievements. "Hello, Alexander" which the Messrs. Shubert have supplied for their present tour, was written by Edgar Smith and Emily M. Young with lyrics by Alfred Bryan and music by Jerome Schwartz. More than twenty musical and dancing numbers adorn the score, and the latter have been staged by Allen K. Foster, introducing many new and startling terpsichorean variations. The company numbers almost one hundred people, every member of which has been selected with the definite purpose of contributing clearly to what has been declared a remarkable and unusual entertainment. Among the principals are Homer Dickenson and Gracie Deagon, Vivian Holt, Lillian Rose, Mabel Elaine, Betty Lewis, Dorothy Moore, Dan Quinlan, Edward Scanlon, Dan McNeill, Earl Richards, Phyllis Ray, Newport and Stirk, Chic Barrymore and others. "Hello, Alexander" is in two acts and nine strikingly effective scenes, and the inevitable minstrel first part, in which every member of the big company appears, has been described as the most elaborate stage has ever disclosed.

FLORENCE MACBETH WILL BE HERE WITH MINNEAPOLIS ORCHESTRA

"To be one's true self in the presence of others is always a joy, and that is why I love concert far more than opera," so says Florence Macbeth, the little singing wonder who Europe hailed as the greatest exponent of song since the advent of the immortal Adelina Patti. In

FINE EGG EXHIBIT AT FAIR NEXT WEEK

Dominion Department of Agriculture Will Stage Display Here

One of the most interesting and instructive features of the Victoria exhibition this year, is the exhibit of eggs and poultry staged by the Dominion Department of Agriculture. By the use of large illustrations, transparencies, a most attractive display has been arranged.

The Canadian standards for eggs form the main part of the exhibit. By means of transparencies the various grades, such as "Specials," "Extras," "No. 1's" and "No. 2's," are shown together with cases of graded eggs. These and the appropriate illustrations and legends make it apparent to all why eggs should be purchased according to grade.

As a further illustration of the advantages of buying eggs by grade, a continuous candling demonstration is given. This phase of the exhibit is of particular interest to consumers, as few know that the quality of an egg can be told without breaking the shell. The candling of eggs is not a difficult or mysterious operation and there is no reason why every household should not be sure of the quality of the eggs she serves on the table.

The right and wrong methods of handling eggs and their results, are shown by two series of pictures. In the first series, the wrong method, the eggs are kept in filthy quarters, the eggs gathered infrequently and kept in the hot kitchen. When taken in by the country merchant they are placed beside coal-oil, onions, etc., with the result that when the wholesaler candles them, the great bulk are of low grade, and many unfit for food. The retailer who exposes them in the sunny window completes the work, and the consumer resolves to eat something else for breakfast.

In the modern method the hens are kept in sanitary quarters, the eggs gathered daily, kept in a cool cellar, and marketed once or twice a week. The country merchant also provides a clean, sweet place to store them, and frequent shipments to the wholesaler, who gets a large percentage of "Specials" or "Extras." The consumer is pleased and forms the "egg-a-day" habit.

The display which is under the direction of the Livestock Commissioner, H. S. Arkell, is in charge of W. H. Fairley, and under the immediate supervision of the Chief of the Poultry Division, W. A. Brown.

Neglect Arbitration.

In concluding this letter, I might just say that it has always been my understanding that the settling of disputes by arbitration is one of the strongest principles of unionism. I hope it will not be impertinent for me to remind you that in one of your constitutions, when dealing with such matters, the following language occurs:

"To encourage the settlement of all disputes between employees and employers by arbitration."

"In this instance the arbitration has been held, the award has been made, has been put into effect by the company, and the men are on strike."

"Now that you are in possession of the real facts, I feel that I can quite confidently say to you personally, as secretary and the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council, as a whole, to throw all your weight on the side, in this dispute, of those who, quite apart from other considerations, have loyally carried out one of your own principal articles of faith."

For more than a year Miss Gwendoline Farrar, who inherited a fortune of several million dollars from her father, the late Sir George Farrar, the Rand millionaire, has been appearing on the stage and only recently was her identity discovered by accident.

STRENGTH FOR YOUNG MOTHERS

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restores Health and Strength.

Lansing, Mich.—"After the birth of my child I was not able to stand on my feet. I was so weak I could not get up. I suffered such pains in my back I could not work or hard take care of a baby. One of my neighbors recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and I got better right away and was soon as strong as ever. I can now do all the housework and I am a strong young mother who is well and strong."

—Mrs. ORA O. BOWERS, 621 S. Homer Street, Lansing, Mich.

Women who are in Mrs. Bowers' condition should not continue to suffer from weakness and pain—but profit from her experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of this 3 years' experience is at your service.

GAS MEN HERE ARE BEST TREATED

A. T. Goward Gives Reasons Why Labor Council Proposals Are Inapplicable

A. T. Goward, manager of the Victoria Gas Company, in his reply to E. S. Woodward, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council, gives the reasons for his company's refusal to have the labor council step in and settle the strike.

Mr. Woodward in his communication to Mr. Goward asserted that the "strikers were wholly justified in their demands" and called on the company to "withdraw from the untenable position it has unfortunately adopted."

"I am duly in receipt of your letter of the 16th instant, giving me copy of resolution, passed at the last meeting of the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council," says Mr. Goward in his reply.

"This resolution, after condemning us for having, as you say, precipitated the strike, you call upon us to withdraw from the untenable position we have unfortunately adopted, etc."

"In reply, I can only say how sincerely I regret that such a resolution should have been passed, and I really believe that if you and your Council had been in full possession of the facts no such resolution would have been approved. What are the facts?"

Five Reasons.

"1. The men are paid the highest wages paid for similar work anywhere in Canada."

"2. The men receive time and a half for overtime."

"3. The men receive a bonus of 12½ per cent. for ordinary shift work on Sundays. This is not paid by any other company in Canada or the United States."

"4. The men (stokers, furnace-men and their helpers) get two days off each month with full pay. This, in itself, is the equivalent of time and a half for Sunday work (which seems to be your main complaint), and with the 12½ per cent. bonus received on the 15th of each month, the men are getting even more than you and your Council claim they should get."

"5. The men receive street car passes, cheap light, cheap gas, cheap coke, worth at least $8 to $10 per month, all in addition to being paid the highest wages for this class of work in the country."

"All the above is admittedly true, and, being true, how can anyone ask a company such as ours, operating in a town the size of Victoria, with practically no industrial work, to do more than they are doing, when they are now doing better for their workmen than are any of the companies operating even in such large cities as Toronto, Montreal, etc.?"

Neglect Arbitration.

In concluding this letter, I might just say that it has always been my understanding that the settling of disputes by arbitration is one of the strongest principles of unionism. I hope it will not be impertinent for me to remind you that in one of your constitutions, when dealing with such matters, the following language occurs:

"To encourage the settlement of all disputes between employees and employers by arbitration."
